

MAY FESTIVAL RESERVED SEAT SCHEDULE

READ CAREFULLY

Course Reserved Seat Tickets for the Twenty-first May Festival may be purchased, either by mail or in person, at the office of the University School of Music, up to and including Saturday, May 2, in accordance with the schedule of prices and dates given below.

In order that those who wish to secure tickets by mail may have an equal chance with those who come in person, half of the seats in the auditorium will be held for mail orders.

In order that the sale of seats may be as fair as possible to all patrons, not more than ten seats will be sold to any one person at one time.

Rows A, B and C on the Main Floor will be unavailable since they will be covered by a temporary stage.

MAIL ORDERS

Mail orders will be filled from the odd numbered seats (right hand halves of all sections as the auditorium is entered), in advance, in the order of receipt, except that all mail orders received prior to Monday, March 2, will be considered as of that date.

Mail orders will not be considered, unless accompanied by remittance to cover cost of tickets.

Tickets ordered by mail, unless otherwise directed or unless accompanied by registration fee, will be sent out within a day or two after the respective block has gone on public sale, by ordinary mail, at patrons risk.

PUBLIC SALES

All even numbered seats (left hand halves of all sections as the auditorium is entered), as well as such odd numbered seats as shall not have been ordered by mail, will be offered to the general public in accordance with the schedule given below.

All public sales will begin at 8:00 o'clock in the morning.
