An Fear A' Tighe, Your Host — CHRIS CURRAN

"A Piper" by Seamus O'Sullivan

A Piper in the street today,
Set up and tuned and started to play,
And away, away, away on the tide,
Of his music we started: on every side
Doors and windows were opened wide,
And men left down their work and came,

And women with petticoats coloured like flame,
And little bare feet that were blue with cold,
Went dancing back to an age of gold,
And all the world wore the flowers of May,
For half an hour in the street today.
