P R O G R A M

THELMA RAMSEY, in a musical "cead mile failte," a hundred thousand welcomes.

Irish Molly — An Irish Sweetheart.

THE COMPANY

Do You Want Your Old Lobby Washed Down? — An old "come-all-ye" of a churlish landlord and a coquettish tenant.

Coortin' in the Kitchen — An old Irish pastime.

CHISEL

**Due to illness, Albert Healy has been replaced by Thelma Ramsey. Born in County Antrim, Thelma Ramsey has performed on the variety stage in most of the major theatres of Great Britain and Europe, and has been musical director at the Gaiety Theatre Dublin for the past twenty years.*

If I Were a Blackbird — A sad song of unrequited love.
YVONNE BRENNAN

The best in Irish dancing
THE INIS EALGA DANCERS

Mary from Dungloe — A haunting ballad from Old Donegal.
TONY KENNY and CHISEL

A little bit of rowdy-dow
CHISEL

A Bunch of Thyme — A song of innocent young love.
JACINTA WHYTE

A medley of songs set in Dublin's fair city:
Whiskey on a Sunday
TONY KENNY

My Dublin Bay
YVONNE BRENNAN

Cockles & Mussels
TONY KENNY and THE COMPANY

Off to Dublin
THE COMPANY

INTERMISSION

CHRIS CURRAN joins THELMA RAMSEY in a musical tribute not unconnected with the U.S. Navy.

A little drollery from County Cork
CHRIS CURRAN

O Ce He Seo — An Irish lullaby which translated means "O who is this little baby lying so softly in my arms?"

The Spanish Lady — An old Dublin street ballad.
FIONNUALA MONKS and JURY'S HARPISTS and SINGERS

Some homely humor from CHRIS CURRAN

Avondale — A plaintive tribute to the uncrowned king of Ireland, Charles Stewart Parnell.
JACINTA WHYTE

A reel, a jig, and a hornpipe
THE INIS EALGA DANCERS, accompanied by CHISEL

The tear and the smile
CHISEL

Whistlin' Phil McHugh and The Last Rose of Summer
Two great Irish musical figures, Percy French and Thomas Moore interpreted by:
YVONNE BRENNAN

To make you chuckle
CHRIS CURRAN

Songs of Ireland — merry, melancholy, magical.
TONY KENNY

When Irish Eyes Are Smiling
