

The University Musical Society

of The University of Michigan

Presents

SIBERIAN DANCERS AND SINGERS OF OMSK

YURI YUROVSKY, Director

IRAIDA IVANOVA, Choir Leader

GEORGI PANTUKOV, Chief of Choir

YAKOV KOLOMEISKY, Choreographer

SATURDAY EVENING, MARCH 27, 1971, AT 8:30

HILL AUDITORIUM, ANN ARBOR, MICHIGAN

P R O G R A M

Carnival Music by N. PRONIN, Staged by Y. KOLOMEISKY

Green Field—A Siberian Folk Song Arr. by I. IVANOVA

Corn fields, endless, green and waving like the sea.

WOMEN'S CHOIR

Coachman's Dance—Folk Music . . . Arr. by E. KALUGINA, Staged by G. GALPERIN

MALE CHOIR AND DANCERS

When the Moon—Russian Folk Song (Duet)

Peddlers—Russian Folk Song Arr. by A. SHIROKOV

From Behind the Island into the Bay—Russian Folk Song . . . Arr. by G. PANTUKOV

A tale of the River Volga, of Steven Rasin and his love for the ill-fated princess who is sacrificed to the great river.

THE CHOIR

Love Song—Septet

Tea Music by G. PANTUKOV and N. PRONIN,
Staged by Y. KOLOMEISKY

Let's Dance

Siberian Fun—Folk Music Staged by M. GODENKA

INTERMISSION

My Hut—Folk Music . . . Arr. by N. PRONIN, Staged by Y. KOLOMEISKY
THE CHOIR AND DANCERS

Folk Song to Yermac

My Husband Forced Me To . . .—Russian Folk Song . . . Arr. by G. PANTUKOV
The wife is anxious to please her husband, but she is unable to do so.

The Spooners Arr. by A. RUD
Played on beech tree bark and wooden spoons—unusual folk “instruments.”

Little Willow Music by G. PONOMARENKO, Words by ALFEROV
The love-sick girls share their sadness with the weeping willow tree.
WOMEN’S CHOIR

Moon Song
MIXED CHORUS

Love Grass—Folk Music Arr. by E. KALUGINA, Staged by G. GALPERIN
The tale of a Siberian magical herb, bringing joy, and obliterating grief for the finder.
WOMEN’S CHOIR AND DANCERS

Siberian Troika—Russian Folk Song Music by G. PANTUKOV, Words by A. SINDITSKY
The Troika rushes down the frozen river.
The coachman sings his sad song of unrequited love.
THE CHOIR

Prairie Song

Down Hill—Folk Music Arr. by N. PRONIN, Staged by Y. KOLOMEISKY

Company Manager, JOHN SCOTT
Stage Manager, HANS HORTIG

Special Added Attraction

MERCE CUNNINGHAM AND DANCE COMPANY . . . Tuesday, April 13
in Hill Auditorium at 8:30 P.M.
Tickets: $5.00—$4.00—$3.00

(Lecture-demonstration Monday, April 12. Tickets: $1.00 at the door.)

1971–72 Choral Union Series, Chamber Arts Series, and East Asian Series — season ticket orders now being accepted. Brochures available upon request.
A series of music and dance attractions for the new Power Center for the Performing Arts for next season will be announced soon and orders for series tickets accepted at that time.